This image shows a full page of handwriting practice paper. It features multiple rows of horizontal lines designed to help children learn letter formation. Each row consists of three lines: a top blue line, a middle green line, and a bottom red line. The first two letters of each row are pre-filled with dashed outlines of uppercase 'C' and lowercase 'c'. The remaining space in each row is left blank for practice. Vertical gray lines divide the page into columns, providing additional guidance for letter width and placement. The paper has a light cream or off-white background.This image shows a full page of handwriting practice paper. It features 18 identical rows of horizontal guidelines. Each row consists of three parallel lines: a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. The lines are evenly spaced across the entire page, providing a structured environment for practicing letter formation and alignment.
